

Dutch Reformed Translation Society

Preface

Acknowledgments

Editor's Introduction

Part I: Introduction to Dogmatics

1. The Science of Dogmatic Theology

Terminology

Dogma, Dogmatics, and Theology

The Content of Theology

Is Theology a Science?

Theology and Faith

The Science of God

The Encyclopedic Plan of Dogmatic Theology

2. The Method and Organization of Dogmatic Theology

Apostles, Bishops, and the Return to Scripture

The Turn to the Subject

The Search for a Scientific, Objective Theology

The Certainty of Theological Knowledge

Biblical Theology and the Church

The Role of Faith

The Problem of Order

Order in Reformational Dogmatics

The Impact of Philosophy

The Foundation and Task of Prolegomena

Part II: The History and Literature of Dogmatic Theology

3. The Formation of Dogma: East and West

The Definition and Character of Dogma

Dogma in the Early Church

Dogma and Theology in the East

Dogma and Theology in the West

4. Roman Catholic Dogmatics

Scholasticism

Protest and Response

Counter-Reformation and Neoscholasticism

Roman Catholicism and Modernity

5. Lutheran Dogmatics

The Beginning of Lutheran Theology
Pietism and Rationalism
The Triumph of Philosophy
Resistance and Revision of Lutheran Orthodoxy

6. Reformed Dogmatics

Lutherans and Calvinists
The Beginnings of Reformed Theology
Reformed Scholasticism
Challenges: Rationalism and Mysticism
Decline of Reformed Theology
Nineteenth-Century Streams
Reformed Theology in North America

Part III: Foundations of Dogmatic Theology (Principia)

7. Scientific Foundations

Theological Prolegomena
Foundations of Thought
Rationalism
Empiricism
Realism

8. Religious Foundations

The Essence of Religion
The Seat of Religion: Intellect, Will, or Heart?
The Origin of Religion

Part IV: (Principium Externum)

9. The Idea of Revelation

No Religion without Revelation
Revelation in Theology and Philosophy
Nineteenth-Century "Recovery" of Revelation
Mediating Theology
Nineteenth-Century Philosophies of Revelation
Naturalist Confusion about Revelation
Impossibility of Scientific Neutrality

10. General Revelation

"Natural" and "Supernatural" Revelation
All Revelation is Supernatural
General Revelation Is Insufficient
General Revelation and the Universality of Religion
General Revelation and Christian Discipleship

11. Special Revelation

Modes of Revelation
Revelation as God's Self-Revelation
Revelation and Religion

12. Revelation in Nature and Holy Scripture

"Natural" and "Supernatural"
Roman Catholic Supernaturalism
The Reformational View
Rationalistic Naturalism
The Scriptural Difference
Monism and Theism
Miracles
Revelation, Sacred Scriptures, and History
Incarnation, Language, and the Bible
Continuing Revelation

13. The Inspiration of Scripture

The Witness of the Old Testament
The Witness of the New Testament
The Testimony of the Church
The Rise of Critical Protestantism
The Challenge to Inspiration Doctrine
Differing Views of Inspiration
Organic Inspiration
A Defense of Organic Inspiration

14. The Attributes of God

Attributes in General
The Authority of Scripture
The Necessity of Scripture
Scripture and the Church
Beyond Scripture?
The Clarity of Scripture
The Sufficiency of Scripture

Part V: Faith (Principium Internum)

15. Faith and Theological Method

Internal Reception of Revelation
The Historical-Apologetic Method
The Speculative Method
The Religious-Empirical Method
The Ethical-Psychological Method

16. Faith and Its Ground

Appropriating Revelation by Faith
Two Kinds of Faith
Faith as Intellectual Assent
The Certainty of Faith
The Ground of Faith
Scripture Is Self-Authenticating
Divine and Human-Logos
Demonstrating the Truth of Faith
The Testimony of the Spirit

17. Faith and Theology

Aversion to Theology
Faith's Knowledge
Dogma and Greek Philosophy
How Much Knowledge?
The Grace of Faith
Reason Serving Faith

Bibliography

Select Scripture Index

Name Index

Subject Index